HORRIBLE BUTCHERY

TWO MURDEPED, TWO NEARLY DEAD, TA O INJURED.

The Injured Olds May Dis. No Reason, as Yes, Known for the Herritde Deed-The Murderer so Var Has Nas Stoon Captured-By His Own Hand.

Akron, O., March 30 .- At a late hour Saturday night a masked man entered the farm house of Alvin M. Stone, near Talmage, a few miles from this city, and in the brief space of half an hour committed a horrible butchery. When he took his departure Stone and his wife, both aged people, were dead and horribly mutilated and R. A. Stilson. the hired man, and Emma Stone, the eldest of three daughters, were unconscious from blows dealt by the murderer.

The murderer entered the house by means of a ladder which he raised to an upatairs window. He first passed Dr. Zenker challenged Lieut. Von Ketthrough the room in which Hattie and, telhodt of the imperial yacht Hohen-Flora were alceping without awakening them. Going quietly down stairs to the room in which Mr. and Mrs. Stone slept, he attacked them with a blunt weapon of some sort, hitting both upon the head.

They were probably rendered unconscious and possibly killed by the blows, but the flend, not satisfied with that, proceeded to mutilate their bodies with a knife. He cut off one of as hinding, even, it is sold, by the em-Stone's ears, slashed him across the percr himself, who compets military face and stabbed him in the back. Then he laid Mrs. Stone's cheek open with a knife.

After satisfying his flendish designs down stairs, he proceeded to Stilson's room up stairs. He heard the intruder apparently, for he was awake when he was dealt a stunning blow on the head. Next he attacked Emma Stone, who slept in a room by herself. When who slept across the hall. Hattle Stone arose to go to her sister's assistance, but as she entered the latter's room she was felled to the floor by a blow on the head, but fortunately was not rendered unconscious. Regaining her feet, she ran to her room and locked the door.

Throwing a bed quilt about her she leeped from a window and ran through the rain and mud to the nearest neighbor's, a quarter of a mile away,
After he had struck Hattle down the murdeer returned to Emma's room and struck her on the head, leaving her unconscious.

Then he tried the door to the room in which Hattle had left her younger sister, Flora, when she jumped from the window. Finding the door locked, he battered it down. Finding only Flora in the room he asked where the other girl was. When told that she had gone for help he hastly left the house and made his escape.

Hattle, with blood streaming from her head, managed to reach the neighbor's house, and told her story, then fainted.

After she had been put to bed the neighbor, calling for help, west to the Stone house. There the evidences of the butchery were discovered. The only person in the house who was able to speak was Flora Stone, sged 16, and she was so badly frightened that she west of here, yesterday morning. Two could tell nothing about the murder exwore a mask over his fage.

The crime is a mystery, There is no possible motive for the murders, so room were two gold warhes and some money and nothing was taken.

The sheriff of Samuit county was called to the scene of the murder early in the morning, and with a posse has been searching all dw for flews to the murder. Nothing has been discovered. One man harbeen found who says he saw a buggy pass his house late Saturday night toing in the direction of the Stone house.

Ira Stilson, the hird man, and Emma and Hattle Stone have not yet recovered consciousness and it is feared that Stilson at least will die, while the chances for the scovery of the two girls are wy smal.
